

Sponsored by:

John Randolph Foundation
Army Quartermaster Foundation
City of Petersburg
Friends of the Army Women's Museum
Historic Hopewell Foundation, Inc.

- Available to 4th–7th grade teachers
- American Revolution to Present
- Field Trips to Petersburg National Battlefield, City of Petersburg Museums, Weston Manor, and the Museums at Fort Lee
- Presentations by subject material experts at each site
- Books and other teaching resource materials provided
- Small group learning environment
- Certificate for 40 CEU points
- Teacher's stipend provided

Ranger Gates explains the significance of railroads during the Siege of Petersburg.

Teachers learn about artifacts and the enormous job of keeping the Army supplied at the U. S. Quartermaster Museum. Etchings from historic Blandford Church help participants understand the rich history of the City of Petersburg.

Visit us at our websites!

www.awm.lee.army.mil
www.historichopewell.org www.nps.gov/pete
www.oldtownepetersburg.com
www.qmmuseum.lee.army.mil

History Underfoot:

Community Teacher Institute

Petersburg, VA
June 22~25, 2009

History Underfoot: Community Teacher Institute Petersburg, VA

The Community Teacher Institute provides 4th-7th grade teachers an opportunity to explore and understand the resources they have underfoot in the Petersburg community. During this four day workshop, participants will learn how to effectively incorporate historical photographs, artifacts, and primary resources into classroom materials by visiting sites in their communities and developing standards-based curriculum lesson ideas.

Teachers meet each morning at the Petersburg Train Depot for an overview of the days activities.

SITE VISTIS INCLUDE:

Petersburg National Battlefield -

- Grant's Headquarters at City Point and Appomattox Plantation
- Eastern Front unit including the Fort Steadman and Crater Battlefield sites
- Grant's cabin
- Landscape studies of battlefield sites

Museums at Fort Lee -

- U.S. Army Women's Museum
- U.S. Army Quartermaster Museum

City of Petersburg Museums -

- Siege Museum
- Centre Hill Mansion
- Blandford Church and Cemetery

Historic Hopewell

- Weston Plantation

The Community Teacher Institute is free!
In addition to a stipend, teachers will receive wonderful educational resources, transportation, lunches and snacks generously provided by our sponsors.

Participants get a lesson in digging up the past from the Regional Archeological Curation Facility at Fort Lee.

REGISTER by April 3, 2009:

Go to www.awm.lee.army.mil
E-mail leeawmweb@conus.army.mil
Or call 734-4327 for more information
Limited space available

Working with primary source documents is a highlight at the U. S. Army Women's Museum.

June 22-25,
2009