

THE UNITED STATES ARMY WOMEN'S MUSEUM
AND
THE UNITED STATES ARMY QUARTERMASTER MUSEUM
PRESENT

The 90th Anniversary Commemorating the End of World War I

November 11, 2008
9:00 a.m.-4:00 p.m.
Museums at Fort Lee
Virginia

VETERANS' CEREMONY

Come help us celebrate our Veterans' with a recognition ceremony. The Freedom Team Salute ceremony begins at 2:30pm. Colonel Gwen Bingham will officiate and the Fort Lee Band Ensemble will perform.

THE PUBLIC IS WELCOME

To enter Fort Lee have Car Registration, Proof of Insurance and ID for driver and ID for anyone over 16 years of age.

Phone: 804-734-7327

E-mail:

leeAWMWEB@conus.army.mil

WWW.AWM.LEE.ARMY.MIL

Join the Museums at Fort Lee for a day filled with events celebrating the history of the United States in World War I. There will be living history interpreters: U.S. Army Officer and NCO, Pilot, Red Cross and Salvation Army workers. Watch as the air battle over France rages and the soldiers fight in the trenches on a miniature battlefield. Enjoy any of our six distinguished guest speakers on various fascinating topics. You are invited to tour original WWI Training Trenches used at Camp Lee and listen to the archaeologist explain their use and preservation. The Fort Lee Army Band ensemble will play from 2-4 pm and help us recognize the service of our veterans during a special ceremony at 2:30 pm. Museum Tours and Talks are available all day.

Rain or Shine

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

9:30-10:15	Dr. Steve Anders, Command Historian, U.S. Army Quartermaster Center and School, History of Camp Lee, 1917-1918.
9:30-10:15	Dr. Stephen Rothenbach, Virginia State University, The Military Melting Pot: Race and Ethnicity in the American Expeditionary Force.
9:30-11:15	Dr. Malcolm Muir Jr., Virginia Military Institute, Changing Forces to Meet Changing Threats: The U.S. Navy in World War I
10:30-11:15	Dr. Thomas G. Barnes, University of California, Berkeley, Stalemate to Checkmate, 1914-1918.
11:30-12:15	Dr. Paul Alkebulan, Virginia State University, Making the World Safe for Democracy: WWI and the Black Press.
11:30-12:15	Dr. Edward G. Lengel, University of Virginia, America in the Meuse-Argonne.
10:30-11:00	Demonstration in Miniatures, Aerial Warfare, 1914-1918
11:45-12:15	Demonstration in Miniatures, Trench Warfare, 1914-1918
12:30-1:00	WWI Training Trench Tour
12:30-1:00	Demonstration in Miniatures, Aerial Warfare, 1914-1918
1:00-1:30	Demonstration in Miniatures, Trench Warfare, 1914-1918
1:30-2:00	WWI Training Trench Tour
2:00-4:00	Fort Lee Band Ensemble
2:30-3:00	Veterans Ceremony
All day	Living History, Museum Tours, Women in WWI, Tour the Training Trenches, Demonstrations in W.W.I Miniatures, Aerial Warfare and Trench Warfare

For more information contact:

U.S. Army Women's Museum
2100 A Ave
Fort Lee, VA 23801
804-734-4327

Or

U.S. Army Quartermaster Museum
1201 22nd Street
Fort Lee, VA 23801
804-734-4203